¹ Any student or alumnus who wants to participate in this event is required to attend one one-hour Info Session unless he/she has participated in CID and a related Info Session in the past:

- Tuesday, September 1: 5:30 p.m. in 101 CM Building
- Wednesday, September 23: 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. in 1119 Patrick F. Taylor Hall
- Thursday, September 24: 5 p.m. in 1119 Patrick F. Taylor Hall; 7 p.m. in 2146 Patrick F. Taylor Hall
- Tuesday, September 29: 5:30 p.m. in 101 CM Building

² Students/alumni who attended a mandatory Info Session will be able to submit their résumés (through Careers2Geaux) to organizations with which they are interested in interviewing. You must participate in this submission period to be considered for preselection.

³ Preselected students will schedule interviews (through Careers2Geaux) with the employers that preselected them.

BEFORE CONSTRUCTION INTERVIEWING DAY — What to Know

- Visit the event Web page to prepare—we've posted sample résumés, sign-up tutorials, etc.
- On Construction Interviewing Day, employers visit campus to conduct interviews for internship, full-time, part-time and co-op positions in the construction field. You must have a Careers2Geaux account to participate. Membership is free for current LSU students and alumni within one semester of graduation; other alumni must pay a $50 annual fee to join.
- Interviews are prescheduled through Careers2Geaux, accessible at www.lsu.edu/career. Scheduling will take place Friday, October 16, through Monday, October 19. Employers will preselect interviewees by Thursday, October 15.

ON CONSTRUCTION INTERVIEWING DAY — Cotillion Ballroom, LSU Student Union

- Arrive early to the Cotillion Ballroom, and bring extra résumés.
- Make time for the career fair (8 to 10 a.m.), a chance to visit with employers and/or try to secure interviews with any employer(s) that did not preselect you for an interview.

AFTER CONSTRUCTION INTERVIEWING DAY — Following Up

- Write thank you notes to the employers who interviewed you.
- Visit Careers2Geaux to identify additional job postings in the construction field.
