

Career Exploration FIG Learning Outcomes
2008-2009
LSU Department of Residential Life

| Learning Outcomes   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| Knowledge  | Skills   | Abilities  |
| Comprehends academic requirements and rigor required to be a first-year student                                       | Distinguishes between personal and academic requirements needed to be successful as a first-year student at LSU                     | Prioritizes responsibilities effectively to achieve academic success and progress towards major/career goals  |
|   | Takes advantage of campus resources and support to increase academic success  |   |
| Identifies involvement opportunities of interest to him/her   | Relates involvement to career and personal interests and decides which involvement opportunities he/she wants to become involved in | Participates in involvement opportunities   |
| Knows all residents, faculty, and staff members of the Career Exploration FIG   | Identifies opportunities for interaction and collaboration with fellow residents, faculty, and staff members                        | Engages in projects, activities, and leadership experiences with fellow residents, faculty, and staff members in the Career Exploration FIG                                       |
| Identifies faculty and professionals in his/her specific career interest areas who could serve as a mentor to him/her | Utilizes networking skills to foster relationships with faculty and professional mentor(s)  | Works with his/her mentor to gain hands-on, practical experience in his/her preferred career interest areas   |
| Identifies the link between major selection and his/her career path   | Connects various major choices to career path   | Constructs a realistic career development plan by 1) selecting the appropriate major to support his/her career path and 2) developing the skills he/she needs for the career path |
| Lists various career options based on the interests, values, and skills he/she possesses                              | Synthesizes personal strengths, interests, and abilities with career options  |   |
| Identifies the skills required for his/her preferred career path  | Establishes foundation of necessary and relevant skills needed in his/her preferred career  |   |