

Demonstrate an understanding of Diversity	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Recruitment of diversity to reside in residence halls 2) Develop a speaker series with regards to diversity of thought 3) Offer freshmen orientation on how to adjust to diversity on college campus 4) Develop service projects that positively affect the community
Demonstrate an understanding of professional ethics in pursuit of truth and accuracy	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Develop an anti-plagiarism workshop 2) Develop a resume building seminar 3) Faculty mentoring on the ethical issues as it pertains to each department 4) Encourage participation of the Manship Etiquette Dinner
Think critically, creatively and independently	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Form study groups with like-minded students 2) Hold monthly movie nights with discussion 3) Offer courses MC2000 and MC 2015 4) Offer exposure to student media 5) Encourage students to participate in the internship program by holding informational meetings
Write correctly and clearly in forms and styles appropriate to the communications professions and to diverse audiences	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Encourage a clear understanding of the Manship School writing guide 2) Offer MC 2010 course 3) Have 2010 faculty hold some office hours in the residence hall
Critically evaluate their own work and that of others for accuracy, fairness, clarity, and grammatical correctness	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) One-on-one mentoring via the Manship Match 2) Hold an AP study session 3) Develop a seminar on "How to get accepted into the Manship School" 4) Offer MC 2010 with students earning a B or better.